WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

NORTH CAROLINA

THE VOTE IN THE APRIL ELECTION.

We publish below, for the sake of reference, the official tabular statement of the vote in the April election in this State.—The 29,774, who did not vote, were men who were registered, and entitled to vote, at the time of the election. In addition to this, it may be safely estimated that 15,000 men in the State are now enfranchised, who could not vote before.

AT HOME AGAIN!!

WITH A HOUSE RAMMED AND PACKED FULL OF

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS,

FOR

1868.

COME TO

A. CREECH'S!

For Ladies' Goods! For Gentlemen's Goods! For Misses' Goods! For Boys' Goods! Ditto for Children!

MY STOCK IS LARGE AND VERY COMplete. Allow me to say that you see some very strange advertisements. Some say they bought goods before the rise—some after the decline—some just in time—some in luck again—some buy goods cheaper than anybody else—some selling goods at unprecedentedly low prices—some controlling the trade &c., &c., and all such stuff. What a lucky set of individuals!

Now just let ME tell you, that there is more humbug than poetry in all this. Don't every man, woman and child know that it is humbug—large enough to be seen even with one eye shut? So let them talk, puff and blow, but STOP, LOOK OUT! HANDS OFF! and show your good judgment by to buy your goods. I intend to run through this campaign with my motto, to give each and every individual value received for their support!

A fine opportunity for the ladies to exercise their inalienable rights, as well as the gentlemen. Don't stop until you COME TO CREECH'S. You will find me at R. Smith's corner, attending to my business, always ready to give you the worth of your money.

NOTICE.

THE OFFICE OF THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURance Co. has been removed to the upper rooms over the Clothing Store of Messrs. Andrews & Co., and adjoining the Messrs. Tucker's Hall, where the public are invited to an examination of all the official Reports of the various Insurance Companies of America. Their progress and standing may thus be easily and reliably ascertained. The progress of the old Ætna as thus to be seen, will not fail to secure confidence and patronage of those desiring to provide for themselves or families. This Company has promptly met over sixty thousand dollars in death losses in North Carolina within three years. And, as a guarantee for the future, has now assets over and one hundred and thirty dollars to pay every one hundred of her liabilities. To the weary and anxious enquirer for a place of safe investment, call while in health and strength upon the subscriber and obtain from $1,000 to $20 000. Delays are often fatal.

NOTICE.

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY has paid another loss. Read the following:

$3.000.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 16th, 1868.

Received of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, by the hands of W. H. Crow, General Agent, Three thousand dollars, in full payment of all demands upon the Life Policy of my deceased husband, Larkin F. Bunn. No. of said Policy 48,793.

With many thanks for this prompt payment in the hour of my affliction and need,

I am, respectfully,

HESTER A. BUNN.

Added to the above, may be mentioned another fact, proving the wisdom and beneficial results of Life Insurance, and also the fidelity and good faith in which this old and well tried Company deals with its members.

In less than three years this Company has done more than all others combined, to relieve the wants of the widows and orphans of North Carolina.

It has paid Policy, No. 15,273 .... $5.000
" " 10 818 .... 5.000
" " 18,607 .... 5.000
" " 24,092 .... 3.000

" " 28,650 .... 5.000
" " 43,974 .... 2.500
" " 35,082 .... 10.000

Being thus bountifully tried and proved, it commends itself to the patronage of every reflecting citizen, who desires to provide a certainty for those he loves and are depending on him.

OF

NEW YORK.

THE rapid advancement of "THE EQUITABLE," to the very front rank of American Life Insurance Companies, the unprecedented amount of its new business for the year ending September 30th, 1868, being over the large accumulation by it of EIGHT MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, together with an annual income of FIVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS, afford the very best evidences of its popularity, success and reliability.

FIFTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS,

A brief comparison of the Society's business for the first nine years of its organization, will best illustrate its remarkable progress.

THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of Grant and Colfax. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. Men of North Carolina, read this insult to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"But wherever else you work, don't forget to work among the women. The Confederacy would'nt have lasted a year if it hadn't been for them. One good rebel woman is worth a dozen rebel men. Go after the women, then. They will take you in and hang behind for Grant and Colfax until they are hoarse, if you will manage to replace some of the diamond rings and lace Frank Blair stole from them when he was here. And don't hesitate to throw your arms around their necks now and then. When their husbands are not around, and give them a good——! They all like it, and the Yankees you are the better it takes. Our experience with female rebs is that while all their sins, they have a vast amount of human nature, and only want to have it appreciated to be the most loving creatures imaginable. Scalawags and carpet-baggers, don't fail, therefore, as you canvass the State, to look after the women. You are all good looking and they know it, but with native modesty, like New England girls, they like to be approached first. Don't be afraid of their airs—they glare like tigers leaping in the night, but underneath the moon no blue death-stricken fawn is half so tender or half so deep. Don't read Judge Pearson's letter to them, but give them hymn and shelley in volumes and you will have them in your arms, if not in your party, in less than a week."

SKIES BRIGHTENING.

It is cheering—it is glorious—to witness the energy, the determination and the unconquerable resolve with which our friends at the North are rallying their forces and charging upon the ranks of the enemy.—Such a spirit is the guarantee of success.—At no previous stage of the canvass, have we seen half the zeal and energy which are being now exhibited by the indomitable Democracy of the North. Our great leader is himself in the field and the clansmen are gathering to his call all over the Republic.

Democrats and Conservatives of North Carolina! We tell you that the signs are auspicious. Do your duty as nobly as our friends elsewhere are discharging theirs, AND ALL WILL YET BE WELL!

One week for the Constitution, the Union and North Carolina! Give this week up, friends, to the great work, or you may lament it, in sack-cloth and ashes, forever!

THE GREAT ISSUE.

There are several National issues, in the pending contest between the two great parties, of immense moment, but there is one which we call the great issue, to which we have repeatedly called the attention of our readers, since we thought we could read the designs of the manipulators and real leaders of Radicalism, out-cropping in the Howard Amendment, i. e. the destruction of the Federal character of the government, and the substitution of a great military centralized power, alike dangerous to personal or individual liberty, and to the rights and powers of the whole people. This idea has oppressed us, from the first, far more than temporary military rule, or the disfranchisement of the whites and the enfranchisement of the blacks; far more than the extravagance and certain bankruptcy of the government and people, under Radical rule,—nay, more than negro domination. These, of themselves, if the hope of the preservation of the Constitution was secured, would be temporary. But what could compensate the American people for the loss of free government, when that loss would be perpetual?

That this is the tendency, and must be the ultimate end, of the triumphs of Radicalism, no one can doubt, who is not wilfully blind, who has watched narrowly the course of events for the last eighteen months. And yet but a small portion of the people or the controllers of the public press, especially at the North, have seemed to perceive it. They have battled against the specific objectionable measures of the Radical party, and attempted to direct public attention to their enormities, but, as if under some enchantment, some unwonted paralysis or some blinding influence, the real and inevitable result, as well as aim, of these measures seems never to have waked them fully to the dangers which threaten the nation. It is true, that the swift and astonishing events which have so rapidly passed before their eyes, have awakened suspicion in most minds. The strange knell of that now common proverb, "Revolutions never go backward," has sometimes aroused them, for the moment, as the fire-bell at night arouses the sleeper; but they have sunk back again to repose. Thoughts which, for sixty years under the old government as it was and as it ought to be, never disturbed an American citizen, have forced themselves upon our people, ever and anon. Such as these—"Republics are unstable;" "The people are incapable of self government;" "A constitutional monarchy is safest after all," have darted athwart the brain, but what American citizen has seriously pondered the awful, dark, frightful sea to be traversed before a safe harbor could be reached?—When our thoughts have essayed to take this range, they have been choked by the common and ready answer to an American heart, "the people will not permit it." But, alas! we are not the people we once were—not the same people. Radicalism has changed our complexion, making white, black, and black white.

Gen. Blair, in his late speech at St. Louis, dwells upon this thought with great emphasis and force. A lying Radical telegraphic reporter made him say, that "if Gen. Grant ever went into the White House, as President, he would never come out alive." At once the unscrupulous Radical press stigmatized him as an assassin. General Blair neither thought nor said anything like it.—His utterances are prophetic. We repeat the extract from his speech, and we call upon our readers to ponder his words:

"The point to which I desire to bring you is this, that in this struggle we have everything at stake; that it is the final and last struggle for the preservation of free constitutional Government in America—that if we fail in it, the Republic falls with us. It becomes the mere appendage of the military chieftain who is elevated to power in the Presidency. But he never will leave the Presidential Mansion as long as he lives. I have nothing to say against him personally. I have no intention of derogating from his great merits as a soldier, and I have no desire to tarnish any of the laurels which he won in the services that he gave to the country during the late war. But I have just as little design of surrendering absolute power into the hands of any man, no matter how illustrious he may have made his name in this great war. He came back a conqueror, and has, by treating those States, in violation of the Constitution, as mere provinces, shown his intention to treat the whole people of this country as mere dependencies—appearances indicate, if we may judge from the treatment of the Southern States by the faction he represents, to make the Presidency a mere stepping stone to absolute power. That is my judgment of his character and his design; and we can argue well what the intention of his party is from what this party has already done.

"It is idle to tell me that they entertain no such designs. It is idle to say that that party, which has trampled down the plainest and most palpable constitutional rights of the citizens; who have not hesitated to violate that Constitution which they have sworn to maintain and support—it is idle to tell me that after having gone thus far they will hesitate to go farther. Nothing will make them hesitate except the public sentiment of this nation, which they cannot misapprehend, and tells them 'thus far and no farther shalt thou go.'"

Now, in arriving at the same conclusion with Gen. Blair, we attribute to Gen. Grant no lack of patriotism, no bad motive or purpose now fixed in his mind. He does not seek the Presidency with any purpose to destroy the government. We attribute no more to him than we would to any other man of the same education, the same habits of thought, the same ambition and the same will, surrounded and controlled by the same bad men, who have been the agents who have forced this government already to the precipice. Had he the intellect, the mental resources which men who fill the Executive chair should always possess, to resist the violent and aggressive policy of the Radicals, we should have more hope for the Republic; but, judging from the past, the Radical party, if successful in this contest, will so press him by its usurpations and extravagances, that it will be an easy matter for him to persuade himself that the safety of the nation demands a strong hand at the helm, to rid it of Congressional control and intrude. Secure in his position, by the will of the people, he will break the withes with which President Johnson has been bound, and by the silent acquiescence of the popular will, and, perhaps, by the agency of universal suffrage, as in the case of Napoleon, the Empire will be upon us before we are aware! It may not be so. But what has been, may be again. The signs are portentous, and while the Republic may be saved, we should make it sure BY THE ELECTION OF SEYMOUR AND BLAIR!

Let every man, who loves the Federal Republic, who holds to the Constitution as the only sheet anchor of our hopes, cast aside all selfish, all mercenary feelings, all idle fears of conflict and bloodshed, and rally for the preservation of liberty and THE CONSTITUTION! While they may be saved, —and they ought to be at all hazards,—let us rally to the only constitutional party in the country,—the Democratic party.—To daily, to higgle, to delay, is dangerous. If the party in power succeeds in this contest, the Constitution goes under, NEVER TO RISE AGAIN!

BE ON THE ALERT, friends of Seymour and Blair! See that all our friends REGISTER AND VOTE!

LOOK OUT FOR FRAUDS.

We want no better evidence of a set plan and purpose to commit frauds, in the approaching election, on the part of the Radicals, than is furnished by the advance clamors of the Standard, warning the Radicals against fraud. This game was played by Forney and Greeley, before the Pennsylvania election, in which the most stupendous frauds were committed by them.—Let the Democrats keep a sharp eye upon them!

STIR UP your friends to REGISTER AND VOTE. Don't neglect this. Remember we must carry North Carolina for Seymour and Blair, on the 3rd. of November.

The Next President of the United States in the Field.

GOV. SEYMOUR'S TRIUMPHAL TOUR.

GREAT SPEECH AT ROCHESTER.

Fellow-Citizens.—I am astonished at this demonstration. I left my home to day for the purpose of addressing a meeting at Buffalo to morrow evening. I can, therefore, speak to you to night but very briefly, but I shall be followed by those who more ably than myself can discuss the great issues of the campaign.

Nearly four years ago the war which ravaged our land ceased; nearly four years ago the affairs of this country were confided to the administration of the present authorities. We found at the close of the great contest that a large section of our country had been disorganized in its industry, its social structure, and its moral condition, as the result of that war. If we turned from the South—that portion which had been overcome by the valor of our troops—and took into consideration the condition of the whole country, we found it burdened by an enormous debt. We found that our carrying trade had been swept from the oceans of the world. We found the business of our country perplexed by all the uncertainties which overhung its future business pursuits. We meet now for the purpose of determining whether those who have administered the affairs of the United States during the past four years have governed it wisely and well. They come before the people of this country asking to be reinstated in power.—They say that they have so controlled its interests that they are entitled to the confidence of the people. They claim their measures have been wise and judicious, and that they have tended to advance the interests and the welfare of the republic. In their Convention they congratulated the people upon the success of their scheme of reconstruction. The question now presented to the voters of this country is simply this: Are you satisfied with the conduct of those who have conducted the affairs of the country? (Cries of "No, no," and cheers.) Are they entitled to your confidence? (Cries of "No, no.") Have they so administered your finances that your taxes have been lightened as they might have been? (Cries of "No, no.")—Have they relieved the labor of the country from the great burdens which rested upon it? (Cries of "No, no.") Can the business men of the country who conduct its enterprise and who employ its capital say that they repose such confidence in the wisdom of those who now administer its affairs, that if they shall again be placed in power, they can go on in confidence in their transactions? (Cries of "No, no," and cheers.)—The answer of this great audience is, and I believe the answer of the people of this country will be—No. The day was when the American people were proud, when they counted among the foremost nations of the earth as a people, largely engaged in the commerce of the world. (Cheers.) We do not find that this great subject has, during the past three years, attracted even the attention of those who administer the affairs of our land. Whichever way we look, whatever class we address, whatever individual interests we consider, we find that at this time the policy of the Government is such that labor is depressed, business is perplexed, and the future is full of uncertainty.

Now why has this administration failed? Why have they come so far short of the fulfilment of their duties, that at the end of nearly four years of peace we find ourselves still embarrassed, hampered, and oppressed by that same condition of things which we found at the close of the late war. They claimed in their national convention that they had a right to congratulate the people of this land upon the success of their reconstruction scheme. They claimed that our financial condition had been improved.—They claimed that the heavy burden of debt which rests upon this land was about to be lightened. Thus far in the canvass those claims have been discussed. Their speakers, as well as those who spoke for the Democratic party, have been engaged in laying before you their views upon these subjects, and what is the result? So completely have our opponents' side been driven from the field upon those points, that they now find that it is necessary to change their front. We are admonished that a change of front on the eve of battle is a dangerous thing. (Laughter.) After their congratulations that their scheme of reconstruction was a success, what do they now say when they are pressed on the financial question, when they hear the complaint of the laborer under the loud taxation, and of the business men at the perplexities which surround them? They attempt to turn away the public mind from the consideration of these things. They attempt once more to fire the Northern heart against the people of the Southern States by saying that the spirit of rebellion still exists in its full force. If that is true; if it is true that disloyalty yet prevails all over the South; if it is true that the spirit of rebellion yet lingers there; if it is true that it is necessary to tax this people in order to maintain great armies, what becomes of their boast and congratulation, that their reconstruction has been successful! (Great cheering.) They find now that it is necessary, in order to turn away public attention from the pressure that is brought to bear upon them by the arguments upon the financial questions which have been advanced upon our side, to revive once more the issues of the past, to keep alive that spirit of sectional hate which would plunge the country again into bloody war. Driven from the field of argument upon all the points upon which they placed themselves at the outset of this canvass, they have now assumed a different position and attempt to prevent the people of the country from putting new men into power, by charging that such a change threatens the peace of the land, and that there is reason to fear, if you elect a Democratic President and Vice-President, that we should again be dragged into all the evils of civil war!

Upon what is this charge founded?—Why, for the last six years the charge brought against our party and our candidates was that we would never consent to any governmental action which was not directed by or in accordance with the Constitution. (Cheers.) For more than four years I was charged with being a man untrue to my country, which I love, and untrue to my flag, which I honor and cherish in my inmost heart. (Cheers.) Why, because in my private life, in assemblages like this, and in the Executive Chair of State, I demanded that the people should have their constitutional rights, and that the government should proceed only according to constitutional modes. (Tremendous cheering.) It was for this reason, and for this alone, that these imputations were brought against me—(cheers)—and now these same men come before the public and try to alarm the people with the idea that if we succeed in this election the peace of our land would be imperilled. Is there anything in the history of the Democratic party during its long continuance in power, was there anything in its conduct during the war, when we filled our armies with the members of that party; when we stood by administrations politically opposed to us; is there anything in our actions and teachings since the war that makes us open to this charge of being men who do not seek the peace and prosperity of our country and the welfare of its people. (Cries of "no," and cheers.) But it is said that if we get into power we shall, with violence, destroy all that they claim to have done rightfully, legally and constitutionally.—Now, as I said before, we seek not only constitutional ends, but we mean, whatever we do, to follow constitutional modes of action. (Cheers.) Who is it that makes the charge? A general in one of our Southern States, acting under the advisement and in accord with the sentiments of the Republican party, and a subordinate of its candidate for the Presidency, has recently put forth an order in which he directs that at the coming election the soldiers of the South, in the preservation of peace, need not be governed by the technicalities of the law. Law has no technicalities. The proceedings of a court are sometimes technical, but for the first time in our land we hear the declaration that the language or requirements of the laws may be treated as technicalities to be set aside, not by your courts, but by military power. It was never before heard in this land, that any court had the right or power to set aside the language or directions of the statute on the ground that they were technical directions. The day was when the mere assumption of a military officer to sit in judgment upon the laws would have aroused this whole people, but here the proposition goes further than that. They are not only to decide what laws are, but they are to take upon themselves to disregard the provisions of those laws, if they see fit to claim that they are technical. What are these laws which are thus to be trampled upon?

You have heard it charged against me and against General Blair that if we could obtain power we would trample upon the reconstruction laws? and yet at the very moment they make these charges, one of their own partisans, acting under their own influence, is trampling these very laws under foot by a direction that his subordinates shall not feel themselves bound in their action, if they see fit to regard any of the provisions of these laws as technical.—(Cheers.) Let us look a little further at this charge. I repel with indignation the suggestion that any member of the Democratic party, or that party as an organization, or that myself as an individual of that party, will ever do violence to law or order. (Cheers.) Let us inquire into the reason ableness of this charge. Suppose the people of the United States see fit to elect a Democratic President—(voices, "They will," cheers)—and a Democratic Vice-President, what then? Is your Government changed? Do we hold unqualified power? Could we make war? Could we control the legislation of the country? What will our powers be under the laws as they now stand? You have seen a Chief Executive of these United States shackled by legislation; you have seen him arraigned as a criminal before the Court, you have heard the majority of that tribunal pronounce him a guilty man, and he would have been deposed from power had they not lacked one vote to make two-thirds of the Senate to sanction that action. Those statute laws which to-day shackle and hinder the action of Andrew Johnson would equally shackle a Democratic Executive, if we succeed in this election. Our Republican friends will control the Senate; they will control the House of Representatives; they will control the army, for their candidate is the General who commands that army. How absurd, then, is this cry that there is danger from an Executive thus shackled and powerless, even if he desired to do wrong! (Cheers.) It may be asked, then, what do we gain if we change the Executive and place one of a different party in the Executive chair when his powers will be so limited? Just this, my friends: While he can affirmatively do but little, he can do much to unclench the unwise action of the party now in power. He can do much to protect the labor of this country from unwise legislation. He can do much to check, in the future, the dangerous policy which threatens the dearest and most vital interests of this country. (Cheers.) But more than that, it is necessary for the welfare of the American people that they shall be given a popular verdict, which will say that the policy of the men in power is not such as meets their approval. What we hope and aim to do in this contest, is to stay the progress of confusion, usurpation, and unwise legislation. The men in power have neither established a successful system of reconstruction, nor done anything to lighten the burden which oppressed the people of the North. (Cheers.)

My strength, my time, this vast audience, prevent my attempting to address you at length, or in any detail, upon this great subject. We ask you now that by your votes you shall put some check upon the unqualified power exercised by the Congressional party. If we do well in the place you put us, and our conduct shall be such that we gain your confidence, then we shall ask you, at another time and at a future election, to go on with the work of reform and reinstate in full power that great and glorious Democratic party, which is identified with all that is glorious in the history of our country. I have but one word more to say, and then I will give place to my friend Mr. Kernan. I implore every man, within the sound of my voice, whatever his political views may be, before he casts his ballot at this election, to seriously ask himself whether it is not better for this whole country that political power shall, in some degree, be divided between political organizations. I ask those, who, in their heart, seek the welfare of our land, and the permanency of our institutions, if it is well and safe for another four years, to give unrestrained, unchanged, and unqualified power to those who have failed, during the past four years, to bring our affairs into a satisfactory condition? We do not ask you to give us unrestricted power. You could not, if you would. All you can do at this election is to place some one in the Executive chair who can check the excesses of the Congressional party, and to administer a rebuke to those who, giving way to passion and acting upon the policy of hate and discord, have prolonged the difficulties of our country, have continued its burdens of taxation, have oppressed its labor, and have made its people uncertain as to its future.—I trust that when this election shall have terminated it shall be the judgment of the people of the United States that the intention of the framers of our Constitution shall be carried out; that power shall in such degree be divided between the great political organizations so that they can hold each other in check, and that it shall neither be in the power of the Republican or of the Democratic party to plunge our country into the evils of civil war, even if they could find it in their hearts to do a thing so unwise, so wicked, and so unpatriotic.—(Cheers.) I thank you, my friends, for this great exhibition of your partiality for myself. From my heart I thank you at this time, when I have been the object of so much eulogy, for this demonstration of kindness and consideration. It strengthens my arm and makes me feel a confidence that he, who with sincerity and humble zeal tries to serve his country and benefit his fellow-citizens, will ever meet with a warm reception from those whose interests he deeply cherishes. (Tremendous cheering.)

NEW YORK.

THE

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first-class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum assured, which is IMMEDIATE, STOCKED, and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium for a promised dividend which is PETTANT, CONTINGENT, and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the "Universal" the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a Company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474.

The difference between these sums ($3,277) is exactly the same as an immediate bonus or addition to the policy to be paid by the former office to the holder of the policy in case of the early death of the insured. It is true that if the insured, in an office charging high rates, live long enough, and have his periodical dividends added to his policy, the sum may equal or surpass that above named; but it must not be forgotten that the chance of early death is the very thing the applicant desires to insure against, and consequently the greater the sum immediately secured contingent on this event, the greater the advantage to the policy-holder.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent greater; and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an assured cash dividend of thirty-three and one-third per cent., payable in advance, or in a dividend of forty-five per cent, payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan, the full value in insurance of the premium paid is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death.

All the improved descriptions of Life and Endowment Policies issued on the Stock plan at greatly reduced rates.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing the return of all premiums paid in addition to the amount insured.

Policies issued at rates less than those charged by Mutual Companies, guaranteeing a reduction of fifty per cent of the premium at or the third annual payment.

The undersigned having been appointed General Agents for the States of North and South Carolina, for the above STERLING Company, desire Agents in all the principal towns and counties in said states. To live and energetic Agents, who are WILLING and ANXIOUS to work, liberal terms will be entered into. COMMISSIONS GOOD.

TICKETS! TICKETS!

The election is only about ten days off. Are the Counties supplied with tickets? We fear this matter is being neglected in some portions of the State. It was announced, weeks ago, that each County must supply its own tickets. Are you supplied, friends?

We print plain tickets, on plain paper, for $2 per thousand, and on colored paper, with flags, for $3 per 1,000. These embrace the Electoral ticket, and the Congressional ticket for each District. Cash must accompany the orders.

EASTERN WARD! RALLY!

There will be a meeting of the Seymour and Blair Club of the Eastern Ward, at their Club Room, to night.

All of the Democrats of the city are invited to attend.

Several speeches may be expected.

Come up, friends! The skies are bright and brightening! Let us have a glorious rally!

DEMOCRATS OF RALEIGH!

But one week intervenes before the election. Let it be a week of active work,—of earnest duty! Many of you have not yet REGISTERED. Can it be possible that any of you will fail to discharge this important obligation? We will not believe it. The man who has it in his power to raise his voice and throw his ballot against the faction who are rushing the Republic to destruction, cursing the State of North Carolina, and oppressing and humiliating her people, and who neglects to do so, deserves to be a hewer of wood and drawer of water! He will richly merit all that the future has in store for him, if Radicalism is fixed upon the country.

Fellow-Democrats and Conservatives!—Come up to your duty, this week, like patriots!—Remember the insult to your mother, wives, daughters and sisters! If you be men—worthy of the privileges of free citizens—register, THAT YOU MAY VOTE. If you prefer to be slaves, and refuse to avail yourself of the opportunity you have to strike a manly blow for the Constitution and for old North Carolina, why skulk at home and be ashamed to look your fellow-freemen in the face!

NORFOLK PAPERS.—We are indebted to our enterprising friends, Messrs. Jno. B. Neal & Co., General Commission Merchants, Norfolk, for their list of Prices Current.—We make the following quotations:

Apples: Dried 7@8; Southern 7@8; Northern 5@6½.

Corn: White, per cargo 1,15; Mixed, per cargo 1,15.

Cotton: Middling 24½@25.

Onions: Per bushel, 7@7,25.

Staves: W. O. Pipe 90—culls 45; W. O. Heading 80—culls 33; W. O. Hhd. 60—culls 33; R. O. Hhd. 46,50—culls 28. There is a constant, steady demand for R. O. Hhd. Staves.

Fertilizers $35@$40, according to quality.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Rocky Mount Cotton Mills: W. S. Battle, Rocky Mount, Edgecombe. These mills are now in full operation. See advertisement.

Powder, Shot, Nails, Candles, Rope, Bagging, Iron Ties, Sole Leather: Upchurch & Dodd.

Candy, Crackers, Cakes, Coffees, Lard: Upchurch & Dodd.

Important Sale of Real and Personal property: Henry G. Kellogg, Assignee. Sale to take place on Nov. 20th. See advertisement. The property advertised is most valuable and desirable.

Useful and elegant varieties for Fall Trade: See the attractive announcement of J. Brown (with Hart & Lewis.)

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. announce their second stock this Fall,—and that, too, when the Fall is barely half over. Their splendid establishment presents a lively scene, with its loaded shelves, attractive counters and busy attendants. We invite attention to what they say in our columns, this morning. Read and profit. We particularly command to the notice of country merchants the wholesale feature of the business of this Firm. There is no necessity for such going further than Raleigh to make their purchases of Stock.

Auction Sale of Miscellaneous Articles, commencing to-night and continuing every night during the week: W. H. Jones & Co., Auctioneers.

Carolina Rice, Italian Maccaroni, Toilet Soaps, Soda, Olive Oil, Worcestershire Sauce, Segars, Old Government Java Coffee, &c.: Douglas Bell.

MASS MEETING.—A Democratic Mass Meeting will be held in the town of Franklinton, on Saturday, October 31st. All persons are invited to attend. Distinguished speakers will be present to address the people. A glorious time is anticipated.

REMEMBER that delays are dangerous. Therefore register, TO DAY. Your vote may be necessary to carry the State.

CENTRAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

This Association, composed of citizens of the counties of Granville, Warren and Franklin, has been in existence for about ten years. Through weal or woe, while nearly all other Agricultural Associations in the State have suspended operations, this Association has steadily kept on its way, and has accomplished much, in its section, in promoting the spirit of emulation among the planters and mechanics.

Its last Fair, at Henderson, exceeded, in numbers and interest, any previous one.—The articles on exhibition were numerous, and it distributed a large number of premiums. On Thursday, the crowd was immense, and that gifted orator, Henry K. Nash, Esq., of Orange, delivered one of the most eloquent and powerful orations of his life. The political status of the country so strongly bears on the farming and mechanical interests of the people, that it was almost impossible to avoid some allusion to politics on such an occasion. Mr. Nash, therefore, could not well ignore it. Many of his passages were trenchant, eloquent and powerful.

On this account, the Woman Insulter of this city assails Mr. Nash and the Agricultural Society, threatening to cut off the annual donation of $50 made by law to all such Associations. The threat is puerile and in keeping with Radicalism. The Society, of course, is abundantly able to do without the paltry donation, but, as a matter of principle, it should contend for it.—Mr. Jenkins, the Public Treasurer, will not refuse to pay any lawful claim, and will, no doubt, pay it, when presented. Should he refuse, the law will compel its payment.

RADICAL WASTE.—Some time before Gov. Worth left the Executive Office, he and the other Commissioners of Public Buildings, in conformity to law, had the Capitol painted and the rooms carpeted and fitted up substantially and neatly enough for business offices. Every thing was in good order, and, it is generally thought, we believe, would have answered very well for some time. Since "Gov." Holden has been in office, we learn that the carpeting has been taken up, and new and costly carpeting has been put down and other extravagant expenditures made. It is believed that, in the condition of our people, much of this is a needless expense. But again: What has become of the carpeting, which was taken up? We have not heard of its having been sold at auction or otherwise. It was worth half its original cost, perhaps. It is reported that it has been divided out among the State officers. If they have paid anything for it, the public are not so advised.

"GEN." LITTLEFIELD AND "GEN." COLEMAN.—Some days ago, it was understood, in this city, that Littlefield had taken Coleman off to the North, to enable the "Attorney" Corporal to get cool. The next thing known of them, according to our telegram, they turn up in Washington City,—having applied at Gen Grant's Headquarters, and to the Secretary of War, for troops, or something, to keep the peace in North Carolina. No one but a libeller of the people of this State and its women, or one crazy or under delirium tremens, anticipates a riot or disturbance among the people. The election will pass off quietly, and no riot or difficulty will occur, unless the carpet baggers and scallawags incite the blacks to trespass too far upon the forbearance of the whites. When they do this, the leaders may attempt to escape the ire of the people, in vain. There is no cause, whatever, of difficulty, between the blacks and whites.—The Democrats and Conservatives accord to the colored people the right to register and vote without molestation, and will protect them in its enjoyment, but they demand the same privilege for themselves. Gov. Holden and his fellow agitators know this, and yet they harp upon armed bands, &c.

"O! Tam, O! Tam, thou'lt get thy fortin,
When hell will rear thee like a herrin."

Tam O'Shanter's Wife.

WILMINGTON, CHARLOTTE AND RUTHERFORD R. R.—The regular annual meeting of the Stockholders of this Road was held in Wilmington, on Thursday last. The election for officers resulted in the choice of the following Board of Directors, being the old set,—no change having been made: R. H. Cowan, W. L. Steele, R. S. French, S. J. Person, H. W. Guion, J. A. McDowell, C. C. Henderson, S. W. Cole, A. R. Holmesley, S. H. Walkup, A. G. Logan, John D. Taylor, J. M. Hutchison.

At a meeting of the Directory, held later in the day, Col. R. H. Cowan was unanimously re elected President. We record this result with much gratification. It is a fitting compliment to the great ability and fidelity with which Col. Cowan has managed the affairs of the Road. The other officers of the Company were also complimented by re election.

Little or no other business of importance was transacted, and the meeting adjourned to meet on the first Wednesday after the fourth Monday in next October, at Charlotte.

From the Washington Evening Express.

MINNESOTA.—A letter just received from St. Paul, Minn., says:

"We can say now, with the utmost certainty, that we will elect Hon. E. M. Wilson (Dem.) over Donnelly and Andrews, the two Republican candidates, by a handsome majority. G."

A letter from St. Louis, Mo., contains the following:

"We think we shall redeem this terribly oppressed and down trodden State next month. We shall defeat the negro suffrage amendment, elect our Governor and members of Congress from the First, Third, Fourth, Sixth, Eighth and Ninth districts, unless the vilest of rascally registration frauds are perpetrated. We are all working here day and night for the good of the party and its ultimate success."

BARBECUE.—Like cap a pie, which means from head to foot, barbecue means from board to tail—Barbe à queue, or cue; that is, entire. In fact, "the whole hog."

STATE MATTERS.

Our Democratic friends in Pitt are zealously at work. Colonels Yellowley and Johnson, Capt. Robt. W. Joyner, Dr. O'Hagan and Henry Sheppard, Esq., sub electors, are vigorously canvassing every part of the county. The people turn out in large numbers and great enthusiasm prevails. We hope to hear a good account from Pitt in November.

The Mayor of Goldsboro imprisoned a negro man last week and kept him in confinement three days, on the charge of telling another negro a falsehood, about two miles out of town and beyond his jurisdiction. The victim of the official outrage, of course, was a Democratic negro.

One John Jones, a convicted negro thief, who has been publicly whipped at the whipping post of Wilson county for stealing, has been appointed by the Radical Commissioners as one of the Registrars of the county!

The Wilmington Star, speaking of Coleman's recent "opinion," says that it has not the temerity to say that either B. F. Moore, Thomas Bragg, E. G. Haywood, Daniel G. Fowle, or S. F. Phillips, is, singly, the equal of Billy Coleman in legal ability; but, combined, their opinion, it most humbly submits, is worth a little more than Billy's!

Col. Thos. S. Kenan and Maj. Jno. Hughes—both of whom are doing their duty most gallantly, in the present canvass,—addressed an enthusiastic gathering of the people of Pitt, at Greenville, on the 16th.

The negroes of James City are for Bass, the reverend colored candidate for the Legislature in Craven, in preference to A. S. Seymour, the carpet-bag man.

The Democracy of Wilmington had a lively and enthusiastic meeting on Friday night. Maj. F. R. Poisson, of the City, Maj. Jno. Hughes, candidate for Elector, and Col. W. L. Steele, of Richmond, addressed the meeting.

The Asheville News publishes forty-seven more withdrawals from the Leagues.

The Buncombe Agricultural Society holds its annual Fair at Asheville, on the 12th of November.

Plato Durham posted A. H. Jones, at Asheville, last week, and L. M. McAfee performed the same operation for T. J. Candler.

The Editor of the Western Sentinel has just returned from a trip through the counties of Surry, Stokes and Rockingham, and found the Conservatives up and doing, and confident of carrying all three of the counties for Seymour and Blair.

Prince Jo. and Font, the Fishgerman, (their anxious friends will be pleased to learn,) turned up at Danbury, a few days since. They encountered a "Tartar," however, in the person of Jo. Dobson, Esq., who skinned them both and then rubbed in a little spirits of turpentine."

The Winston Sentinel says that Windy Billy was offered $1 000 to forego his Congressional aspirations, but declined. As "Windy" has at last backed out, the question arises, how much did he get?

Gov. Vance is to speak at Ansonville, on the 29th., where he will meet O. H. Dockery, the Radical candidate for Congress.—Alas for Oliver! He will be good material for Radical mince-meat.

W. M. Robbins, Esq., the gallant and able candidate for Elector in the 6th District, made a powerful speech to a large and enthusiastic audience in Charlotte, on Monday evening last.

The ladies of Anson presented a handsome flag to the Seymour and Blair Club of Wadesboro, last week. The presentation address was delivered by Miss Mary Little, and Col. R. T. Bennett received it, on behalf of the Club.

NEGRO SUPREMACY.—The dreadful consequences of the Radical policy of placing the negro above the white are aptly illustrated by the course of the armed negro mob that paraded the principal thoroughfares on Tuesday night. We call the attention of the country to the wanton outrages perpetrated by the brutal, ignorant crowd on that occasion. Without the slightest offence policemen were murderously attacked; without any provocation our white fellow-citizens were bludgeoned; and poor, unoffending white women insulted and robbed; all this in the very face of the authority of the nation and in defiance of the supreme authority, which appears powerless to protect us. What will be the result elsewhere, if this revolutionary power is permitted to rule?—Wash. Express.

The Legislature of Oregon passed resolutions withdrawing assent to the fourteenth amendment.

ILLINOIS.

Address of the Democratic State Central Committee.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE ROOMS, SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 19, 1868.—To the Democratic and Conservative Voters of Illinois:—Viewing the late elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and Indiana in their proper light, there is nothing in them to depress, but much to encourage us. These elections are comparable to so many skirmishes preluding the decisive battle remaining to be fought by the opposing political parties in the approaching November.—They have disclosed the warring power of the radicals, and the increasing numbers and strength of the democracy. They have won for us a tactical position which, combined with the justice of our cause, should, and no doubt will, with proper effort, insure our ultimate success. The specific facts on which this statement is founded are eminently worthy of at least a passing notice.

The majority of the radicals in Pennsylvania in 1864 was 20,075 votes; in Ohio, 59,586 votes; in Indiana, 20,189 votes.—These were the results in three great States in the contest between Lincoln and McClellan for the presidency, when the radicals were in the heyday of their power. Now, how altered their conduct and prosperity! How fallen their greatness! The sceptre is dropping from their nerveless hands. Defeat and disaster are irresistibly closing upon them, as the great waters close upon the depths of the dark, deep sea. They have lost in the October elections, upon the Congressional ticket, in Pennsylvania, about 14,000 votes; in Ohio, about 44,000; in Indiana, about 20,000,—making a total loss, in only three States, of 77,000 votes, and an equal gain to the democracy. Almost the smallest imaginable proportional increase on this gain would give us all three of those States, and, consequently, the Presidential election. One more such victory, in the language of the warlike Pyrrhus, would utterly undo our adversaries.

Let us, then, patriots, democrats, and conservatives, one and all, lend our utmost endeavors, heroically, devotedly, to the consummation of this great end. The auguries are most propitious, importing change of times and states. Public opinion, with a flood tide, is irresistibly setting in our favor, and revolutions never go backward. Our cause is just, and must prevail. Constitution, liberty, Union, progress, prosperity, are the stake for which we contend, in the eye of nations and the judgment of mankind. Friends, once more to the breach, and the day will be ours.

JOHN A. McCLERNAND,
Chairman Democratic State Central Com.

The Radicals, now that they fancy they have elected Gen. Grant, are throwing off the mask boldly. The Evening Post is already agitating for laws to deprive foreign citizens of the right to vote for a year after they shall have been naturalized. The Southern negroes who have never been naturalized at all, may vote at once. The Irish and German emigrants, who belong to our own race, have been bred to freedom, and make up the great army of our Northern workers, are to be put on probation. If the Germans and the Irish object to this, of course they will be denounced as "rioters," and "put down" by the black regiments of the regular army. Let us have peace.—World.

Yesterday an old man, with hair white as snow, and a face venerable from age, applied for registration. At the same time a cornfield negro, ignorant, hideous and beastly in appearance, submitted his claims. The old man was jostled aside by the African freedman, who received the polite assiduities of the board. No oath was required of him, no questions asked, but his name and residence. When his time came at last the old man was sworn, numberless questions asked and his name finally rejected. The one was a citizen of forty years' standing, a merchant of distinguished success, and honored by all who knew him; the other simply a negro.—N. O. Pic.

INDIANA DEMOCRATS AGAIN AT WORK.—At Aurora, Indiana, on Saturday evening last, the Democrats had a brilliant torch-light procession, and were addressed by Judge Holman, the Congressman elect from that district. We notice that in other parts of Indiana the Democrats are rolling up their shoves for the November contest.—That is as it should be. Let there be no relaxation of either labor or spirit; but let every Democrat be inspired as with the conviction that on his personal exertions will depend the fate of the Republic.—N. Y. Express.

The Radicals of Philadelphia have held a meeting to denounce naturalization frauds—the scoundrels.

Our Afternoon Dispatches.

NOBLE LETTER FROM PRESIDENT JOHNSON TO HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22, 1868.

Hon. Horatio Seymour:

I see it announced in the papers, this morning, that you will enter the Presidential canvass in person. I trust this may be so, as the present position of public affairs justifies and demands it. It is hoped and believed by your friends, that all enemies of Constitutional Government whether secret or avowed, will not be spared, and that their arbitrary and unjust usurpations, together with their wasteful, prodigate and corrupt use of the people's treasure, will be signally exposed and rebuked. The masses of the people should be aroused and warned against the encroachments of despotic power, now ready to enter the citadel of liberty. I trust that you may speak with an inspired tongue, and that your voice may penetrate every just and patriotic breast throughout the land. Let the living principles of the violated Constitution be proclaimed and restored, that peace, prosperity and fraternal feeling may return to our divided and oppressed nation!

ANDREW JOHNSON."

FROM WEST VIRGINIA.—ELECTION RETURNS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24, M.

The Tribune says of West Virginia, that the Republicans have carried two members of Congress, with a fair prospect for the third; also a good working majority in both branches of the Legislature—thus securing a United States Senator.

The World says "We have continued assurances that the Democrats have swept the State, ELECTING TWO OF THEIR CONGRESSMEN!"

[A dispatch to the National Intelligencer asserts, positively, that the Democrats have carried the State by 3,000, electing two members of Congress, (a gain of two,) and the Legislature.—Sentinel.]

HENDRICKS WILL CONTEST.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 24, M.

Mr. Hendricks will contest the election before the Legislature.

The Indianapolis Sentinel advises the Democrats not to pay their bets yet.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24, M.

The Sub-Treasury has shipped, secretly, half a million of dollars in gold.

Dispatches says the earthquake loss will not exceed half a million.

Our Midnight Dispatches.

MR. SEYMOUR AT BUFFALO.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24, P. M.

Gov. Seymour, in Buffalo, arguing the failure of reconstruction, concludes:

"Another great object and end was to lift up the African as far and as fast as could be wisely done. Humanity dictated this—the interest of the white population of the South demanded it, as the two races were to live upon the same soil. Their common interest called for harmony of purpose and of feelings. Under this state of facts, wise men would seek the aid of the most intelligent and influential men of that section of the country, taking care to guard against any influences springing from their prejudices. Have these obvious truths (?) been regarded by the men in power? Has not reconstruction failed because they disregarded them? The first step towards restoring order and producing harmony between the races was always to minister to the prosperity of that section, which prosperity would be shared alike by the white and the negro.

The industry of the South should be made profitable. Unless the employer made a profit upon his cotton crop, he could not pay the laborer. Failing to do this, the disaster brought not only poverty but confusion and discontent.—True statesmanship would have stretched out a helping hand. But what was the first act of the men in power? It was to put a monstrous export tax of six cents a pound upon the cotton raised by the labor of the negro, upon the plantation of the white. Struggling with the evils of poverty, with the difficulties of the new positions and relationships, the first feeble efforts of their people to gain the means of livelihood were blasted by an unwise, selfish and vindictive act.

I say unwise, because it has much to do with the failure of the Republicans to restore order at the South. The negro, exasperated by the failure of his ruined employer, became hostile to him. The employer, losing the little credit that he had before in the North, renewed his efforts under still greater difficulties than before.

I say it was a selfish act, because it was done in the interest of the Eastern manufacturer, already wealthy from the fruits of the war, protected by an enormous tariff. This tax of six cents a pound upon all cotton exported was simply imposed, so that he might buy it for a price of six cents less than it was worth in the markets of the world.

I say that it was a vindictive act; for, if you will read the debates in Congress, when this tax was levied, to cover the selfish interest that prompted it, you will find that it was urged upon the members of the Western States, who voted against the interests of their constituents, upon the ground that it was to be imposed upon the South, as a penalty, and thus we find that the black and the white man of the South were alike stripped of the market value of their staple product, under circumstances of such great difficulty that they were hindered and not helped on the road to prosperity by the men in power. (Applause.)

I might go on and show how, in addition to this wrong, they were trampled upon by military despotism—how they were placed under the unrestrained power of vagrant men, who gained wealth and official position by ministering to the passions of the public and keeping alive disorder. These men, who now in the Senate of the United States, without constituents, vote down the Senatorial representatives of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana, gained their power over the South and over us, because they ministered to the passions of the North and stirred up disorder in the South.

Who of the fair minded thoughtful Republicans will calmly sit down and look over the action and not feel that the policy of this party has been unwise and hurtful?"

MURDER IN ARKANSAS, &C., &C.

ST LOUIS, Oct. 24 P. M.

Reports have reached here that the Hon. Jas. Hinds, member of Congress, and Hon. James B. Brooks, accompanying him were assailed in Monroe County, Arkansas. Hinds was killed and Brooks was wounded.

The Democrat has a dispatch, attributing the outrage to Democrats.

The Republican has a dispatch, representing that Hinds had split the Radical party and attributes his death to Radical opponents; if, indeed, the reports be true. It says further effort to fix the assassination on the Democrats will be fruitless, because they had more to gain by Hinds living than dead.

The St. Louis Times says that there are ten thousand stands of arms, now in St. Louis, purchased for the Governor of Arkansas, and other Southern Governors; but, so far, it has been impossible to ship them by any regular line or charter a steamer especially to take them.

Horses Stolen—$25 Reward.

TWO GOOD HORSES were stolen from my stables, on Thursday night last. One of them was a Sorrel Gelding, about 7 years old, with a scar on right shoulder recently cured up, and his left eye is bad. The other horse is a Chestnut Sorrel gelding, bald face, with the film of the left eye white, two white hind feet, and with one white fore foot; about 9 or 10 years old. I will give the above reward for their delivery to me, eight miles North of Raleigh. I will also give $25 for evidence to convict the thief or thieves, or will pay liberally for information, so that I can get them.

AN ACT

IN RELATION TO THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF CLERKS OF SUPERIOR COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That as this act will be incorporated in the general act respecting the practice and procedure of the Courts, required to be reported to the General Assembly at its present session, by the commissioners appointed for that purpose, it will be printed in the general act and not elsewhere among the acts of this General Assembly, unless otherwise hereafter directed.

SEC. 2. The Secretary of State is required to have the third section of this act, and that portion relating to the Superior Court Clerks, printed at least weekly in four papers published in this State, and the sum necessary for that purpose is hereby appropriated from any monies in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated.

SEC. 3. The terms of the several Superior Courts of this State shall begin in each year at the times hereinafter stated, and shall continue to be held for two weeks (Sundays and legal holidays excepted,) unless the business shall be sooner disposed of.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVEETION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war of the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or re-agitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United states as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide, that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation to every species of property according to its real value, including government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bond holder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights; and the maintenance of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claim of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge under which alone was rallied the noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as in its power, destroyed and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of offence, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage, to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partizan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies, it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and it sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co-equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void; that our soldiers, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption or homestead lands, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

Resolved, That we approve of the platform of principles adopted by the National Democratic Convention. It falters in no double sense—its language is explicit and its meaning clear—the issues presented to the country are plainly and unmistakably defined, and, with a free and fair election, we confidently believe they will be endorsed by a large majority of the people—and with that endorsement must come such a change in the administration of the National Government as will restore the Constitution and give peace, harmony and prosperity to the country, and especially to the down-trodden States of the South.

Resolved, That it is our earnest desire and intention to bring about these wholesome and necessary changes by the peaceful means of the ballot-box—and all efforts to produce a contrary belief, coming from what quarter they may, are but the tricks of interested partizans of a desperate political faction, bent upon perpetuating its power by any means and at all hazards. They are attempting to alarm the people of this State by the false cry of revolution and war, threatening them at the same time with military force; while, in other States of the South they have not hesitated to take from the people the election of electors of President and Vice President, and to confer it upon Legislatures, the members of which were elected under military rule without freedom of choice and with no regard to the question of the Presidency, in order to secure the electoral votes of such States for the Radical candidates, in disregard and defiance of the just rights of the people of such States, and of the whole country.

Resolved, That it is our frank purpose now, and has been since the close of our late civil war, to accept and abide by, in good faith and without disturbance, the legitimate fruits and consequences of that war; to yield to the Government of the United States a cheerful submission and allegiance, and to perform all the obligations of good citizens to their rightful Government. And we do proclaim that, in asking recognition on terms of equality in that grand copartnership of States which constitutes our Federal Union, we do so with no hostile intent; on the contrary, we wish to share its benefits and its duties; to rebuild our waste places under the protection of its flag; to re-establish the old era of good feeling in our common country; to thwart the designs of unpatriotic men everywhere, who seek to perpetuate discord and division; and to participate in the blessings, as well as the burdens, of the government.—Resolutions adopted by the State Democratic Convention of North Carolina, Aug. 14, 1868.

NORTH CAROLINA PAPERS.

DAILY AND WEEKLY JOURNAL, WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is the oldest Daily in the State, a leading Democratic journal, located in the largest commercial city in the State, and is a large and ably conducted newspaper. Its circulation is extensive and increasing, and it is a capital advertising sheet. We have no better paper in the State. Price of Daily, $10 per annum. Weekly $5. Address ENGELHARD & PRICE,
Wilmington, Sept. 4 tf Proprietors.

THE MORNING STAR, WILMINGTON, N. C.

This is a young Daily, still in its first volume and, by its sprightliness and energy, has a growing circulation. It is a warm supporter of Seymour and Blair, and is doing good service. It is a good medium for advertisers and merits the patronage of the public. Price of Daily $5 per year. Address W. H. BERNARD,
Wilmington, Sept. 4-tf Proprietor.

THE SOUTHERNER, TARBORO', N. C.

Our friend, Capt. Biggs, is giving to the public a capital Weekly, ardent in its advocacy of Democratic principles. It is located in the rich Cotton County of Edgecombe, and in one of the prettiest villages of the State, among an energetic people. It has a good circulation and advertising patronage. Price $3 per annum. Address WM. BIGGS,
Tarboro', Sept 4-tf Proprietor.

SEMI-WEEKLY INDEX, HENDERSON, N. C.

This is an excellent Conservative journal, conducted with spirit and energy, and well deserves the patronage of the public. It is located on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, in a fine Wheat and Tobacco region, and is an excellent advertising medium. Its terms are moderate. It is now published weekly at $3 per annum, and on the 3d of October the Semi-Weekly will be issued at $5 per annum. Address FURMAN & NEWBY,
Henderson, N. C., Sept. 4-tf Proprietors.

THE RECORDER, HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

Dennis Heartt, Esq., the oldest Editor living in the South, continues to publish the Recorder, and, though nearly ninety years of age, performs the duties of Editor and Foreman of his office—His paper indicates the quiet, truthful and reliable character of its Editor. It stands up for the Constitution and the Union, and supports Seymour and Blair. Price $3. Address
Sept. 9-tf DENNIS HEARTT.

ROANOKE NEWS, WELDON, N. C.

This is an excellent Semi-Weekly paper, published at the junction of four Railroads. It is located in a fine corn and cotton country, and is well conducted. It is thoroughly Democratic. Its circulation is good and it is a good advertising medium. Price $5 per annum. Address STONE & UZZELL,
